Profile

BUSINESS AS USUAL IS NO BUSINESS AT ALL

This is your chance to be part of a new powerhouse collective of designers, thinkers, architects, entrepreneurs, artist and others. We are based in Aarhus, Denmark, but open to the world.

We work with people who believe they can turn hope into action. Who acknowledge that we are living in a time of grave danger but also with the greatest of opportunity for the future!

We work with purpose driven companies who work for a better world of tomorrow.

We are working within these fields:

Urban development

Regenerative development, Sustainability & Liveability

Lifestyle

Fashion, furniture, events, art

Conversation

Communication, talks, publications, campaigns

About you

We are looking for strong writers and researchers. We are looking for designers who dare to challenge the future. We are looking for people that can lead a cultural or corporate project from start to finish. We are looking for urban developers who know our cities don't work. We are looking for strong individuals.

You should be as enthusiastic about creating the future as you are of living the present.

You will have your own legal company under the umbrella that is Moonn.

You must enjoy working collaboratively, creatively, and with agility, as an active contributor to the development of our brand.

You will be our new partner and lead a unit within:

- Communication
- Design
- Architecture
- Graphic design
- Product development
- Fashion

Going to the Moonn can happen through partnerships, freelance work, internships, creating your own space in the Moonn universe...We just don't hire people.
